DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

The applicant's petition to claim priority to application number 09/060,520 has been dismissed. The applicant must to cancel the amendment to the specification trying to claim priority to 09/060,520.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed 1/28/2010 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. The applicant argued that the applicant's petition would disqualify the applied reference as prior art. In the decision mailed by the Office on 5/6/2010, the applicant's petition was dismissed. Therefore, Golden is still applicable and the current rejection still stands.

Priority

Applicant's claim for the benefit of a prior-filed application under 35 U.S.C. 119(e) or under 35 U.S.C. 120, 121, or 365(c) is acknowledged. Applicant has not complied with one or more conditions for receiving the benefit of an earlier filing date under 35 U.S.C. 120 as follows:

This application is claiming the benefit of prior-filed nonprovisional application No. 09/060,520 under 35 U.S.C. 120, 121, or 365(c). Copendency between the current application and the prior application is required. Since the applications are not copending, the benefit claim to the prior-filed nonprovisional application is improper. Applicant is required to delete the reference to the prior-filed application from the first sentence(s) of the specification, or the application data sheet, depending on where the reference was originally submitted, unless applicant can establish copendency between the applications.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1, 3-6, and 8-12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by PCT/US99/07818 by Golden et al. (Part of IDS filed on 7/17/2008).

As to claim 1, Golden teaches a method for transferring data between a wide area network and a computer system located on a local area network, comprising: receiving data from a content provider via the wide area network at a digital device that is connected to both the wide area network and the local area network, the data being destined for the computer system located on the local area network (embodiment in Figure 9); the routing device receiving a signal, separate from the received data, indicating that the data is to be transferred to the computer system with a minimum quality of service (page 7, lines 25-28 and page 9, lines 2-11); the routing device initiating a QOS session between the routing device and the computer system in response to receiving the signal; (page 9, lines 23-26); and the routing device sending the data to the computer system according to a minimum quality of service (embodiment in Figure 9).

Claims 3-6 and 8-12 are taught in the embodiment shown on pages 7-9 as should be evident (the reference is by the inventor of this application so much of the terminology is the same).

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
